appearance. Assistant Federal Public Defender Lara Vinnard informed the Court that she was conducting an investigation into the defendant's criminal history and was in the process of requesting additional discovery from the government. The parties then requested a status hearing on November 19, 2007, and requested an exclusion of time under the Speedy Trial Act from October 15, 2007 to November 19, 2007 in order for AFPD Vinnard to complete her investigation and for the government to provide discovery. The defendant, through AFPD Vinnard, agreed to the exclusion. The parties agree and stipulate that an exclusion of time is appropriate based on the defendant's need for effective preparation of counsel.

9	Accordingly, for good cause shown, the Court HEREBY ORDERS that time be excluded
10	under the Speedy Trial Act from October 15, 2007 to November 19, 2007. The Court finds,
11	based on the aforementioned reasons, that the ends of justice served by granting the requested
12	continuance outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The
13	failure to grant the requested continuance would deny defense counsel reasonable time necessary
14	for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence, and would result in a
15	miscarriage of justice. The Court therefore co	miscarriage of justice. The Court therefore concludes that this exclusion of time should be made
16	under 18 U.S.C. §§ 3161(h)(8)(A) and (B)(iv).
17	SO ORDERED.
